

Dear Contestants:

Thank you for your continued efforts in the 2020 ICCAD CAD contest!

Before your final program submission, we provide an extra Prefinal test for testing your programs on our machines. The Prefinal test also help you to verify the correctness and performances of your programs which will be executed in our evaluation environment. We will provide you the evaluation results of each test. In addition, this is an opportunity to score some extra AWS credits. Those contestants who submit a prefinal test will be granted another $100 of Amazon GPU credits. Those contestants who successfully pass the criteria (GPU utilization, no SAIF mismatches) of at least one of the benchmarks (hidden or non-hidden) will be granted another $100 of Amazon GPU credits. There will be one new hidden benchmark added to the benchmark suite starting from the Prefinal test submission.

The deadline for Prefinal and Final submission are August 28, 2020 (23:00, GMT+8) and Sept. 16, 2020 (23:00, GMT+8) , respectively.

Please submit all the required files according to the contest problem you are working on. Please follow the instructions in " ICCAD Design Contest 2020 Problem C Prefinal Test Submission Guidelines"
